

ARCHAEOLOGICAL CONSULTANTS 2013

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Only institutions, organizations and corporations organized for scientific, research, or land-use planning may pursue archaeological and / or paleontological activities on state land. State land means all state, county, city, and other municipal properties in Arizona. State land does not include tribal, federal, or private property.

Before pursuing any archaeological or paleontological activities on state land, qualified institutions, organizations, and corporations must first secure a permit from the Arizona State Museum, University of Arizona (Reference: Chapter VIII B: Rules Implementing ARS § 15-1631 and § 41-841, et seq.).

The following list represents those institutions, organizations, and corporations that have 2013 blanket permits to conduct archaeological and / or paleontological surface survey and / or limited subsurface exploration in nonsite areas on state land.
