What do you know about Native American Cultures in the Southwest?

Try this crossword puzzle and test your knowledge.

Down

1. According to an O’odham legend, without this the world would burn.

2. The way in which Hopi clans trace their families through the mother.

3. An impressive chasm that is important to the Havasupai way of life.

4. This fluffy animal provides wool and food and is the most important livestock to the Navajo.

5. The Tarahumara observe this Christian holiday every spring.

6. The plant Apaches use to make bread is the same plant Mexicans use to make Tequila.

7. The Seri are this type of hunter because they live along the coast of northern Mexico.

8. The “red” river that traverses from northern Arizona to the southern border is an important part of Yuman life.

9. According to origin stories, this four legged, furry animal brought the Southern Paiute to their homeland.

Across

2. The Pahko’olam, the ritual host at a Yaqui fiesta, can be identified because he wears this over his face.

5. The Tarahumara observe this Christian holiday every spring.

6. The plant Apaches use to make bread is the same plant Mexicans use to make Tequila.

7. The Seri are this type of hunter because they live along the coast of northern Mexico.

8. The “red” river that traverses from northern Arizona to the southern border is an important part of Yuman life.

9. According to origin stories, this four legged, furry animal brought the Southern Paiute to their homeland.
Down
1. Rain
2. Matrilineal
3. Grand Canyon
4. Sheep

Across
2. Mask
5. Easter
6. Agave
7. Fishermen
8. Colorado
9. Coyote

To learn more visit the Paths Of Life exhibit at Arizona State Museum