

pictures in motion

A media literacy program of the 2009 Native Eyes Film Showcase

November 14, 2009 1 - 4 pm
Free family fun at Arizona State Museum

Watch more great Native films November 12-15.
Info at www.statemuseum.arizona.edu

enjoy screenings of Native films @ 1:30 and 3:00

This Is My Life USA 4 min, Music Video
Director Freddie Lane (Seminole), Story by Shamania James (Lummi)
17 year old Shamania shares her connection to her Lummi roots through song.

March Point USA, 2008, 56 min, Longhouse Media

Three teenagers from the Swinomish Reservation in Washington State are asked to make a film about two oil refineries that are harming the health of the people, the land, water, and traditional way of life. They also investigate ownership of the land as it is on traditional Swinomish territory. As they take on this responsibility, Cody, Nick, and Travis gain a new sense of themselves.

Discussion follows 1:30 screening led by Dr. Sheilah Nicholas (Hopi), Department of Teaching, Learning and Sociocultural Studies, University of Arizona

Hands-on visual storytelling activities

- Create a flipbook
- Make a sun print
- Write and illustrate a storyboard
- Design a whirling zoetrope movie
- Spin a thaumatrope image

Teachers can earn a certificate for 1-3 hours of professional development and receive a resource packet. No need to pre-register; just sign in when you arrive.

Arizona State Museum
THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA.

Arizona State Museum is located just inside the UA's
Main Gate at 1013 E University Blvd at Park Ave, Tucson 520-626-2973 / www.statemuseum.arizona.edu
email: asmedu@email.arizona.edu